

Lebanese Problematic A quick view into the clash

There are no historical ties for Muslims with any country. This is against Islam and they have had their History within this scope, at least up until ~ 1920.

Then the West dissolved their Islamic State (lastly Ottoman) and we Christians of Lebanon along with the West and to secure ourselves confined a portion of them to the Lebanese State and tried to brainwash them into that they are historically Lebanese and we called them traitors in 1958 and 1975 and we do up till now. Recall that they constantly refused to be part of Lebanon in several organized congresses but their leaders finally accepted, just as ours accepted, the pact and “Arab face” lie...

But they were in harmony with their Islamism in 1958 and 1975 when they supported pan - Arabism and Palestinian insurgency in Lebanon as well as when they supported Palestine against Israel and Gaza and retrieval of Quds (Quds is Jerusalem for Canaanites, aka Lebanese Christians, as well as for worldwide Christians).

Of course, a minority of Muslims have been brainwashed into refusing some basics of Islam all while accepting to consider themselves as Lebanese; but Lebanonism does not exist but is a misnomer of Canaanism, also erroneously called “Christian atmosphere” in Lebanon).

And a minority of Christians have been brainwashed into accepting some basics of Islam all while accepting to consider themselves as Arabs; but Arabism does not exist but is a misnomer of a superficial portion of Islamism in this part of the world).

This is crucial for understanding the clashes in Lebanon. We have many writings exploring further details as to these ideas.

This brainwashing was carried out by each of the two Peoples of Lebanon in order to find a common substratum to justify co-existence in the sense of “one way of life” instead of “two _or more, for different Muslim communities_ peacefully adjacent ways of life”, and thus prove the success of a unitary centralized Constitution. Both parties wanted the other as it wished.

I hope I have opened a window into this matter and I remain at your disposal for any further clarification.

To me H. N. lived his Islam, and the Shiite community in general continue to do so, to perfection, regardless of Iranian Muslims betraying them.
